George Washington—"Father of His Country"

EVERY AMERICAN knows that without "Immortal Washington" our National Independence would have been impossible. Few, however, know that the greatest battle of Washington's life was fought to secure for his countrymen the Constitution of the United States. Almost immediately after the Revolution it seemed that all the great sacrifice of blood and treasure had been in vain. The original thirteen states refused to work in harmony, either in spirit or in law. The new Republic was tottering to its foundations. At this critical period in American history the most brilliant men of each state met in convention and unanimously elected Washington as president—undoubtedly the most momentous gathering of its kind the world has ever known. Here he displayed as great ability as a law-maker as he had as a warrior. For months the Fathers of the Republic

Liberated, and finally adopted our present National Law, which forever guarantees Religious, Commercial and Personal Liberty. This was in 1787. Seventy years later Anheuser-Busch established their great institution on the tenets of the Federal Law which Washington did so much to create. Like all of the great men of his time, he was a moderate user of good old barley beer. For three generations Anheuser-Busch have brewed honest malt and hop beers. Today 7,000,000 people are duly employed to keep pace with the ever-increasing public demand. The great popularity of their famous brand—BUDWEISER—due to quality, purity, mildness and exquisite taste, has made its sales exceed those of any other beer by millions of bottles.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our many friends for their kindness and sympathy shown us during the recent illness and death of our dear mother, Maggie Williams, who departed this life April 4, 1915. And especially do we thank Gates and Manuel, undertakers, for their nice and sympathetic service rendered. Also for the beautiful floral offerings.

Preston Edwards, Elmer E. Pettus, Sons.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Maggie Williams was born December 25, 1868, and died April 4, 1915. She was 46 years of age. A devout Christian and a loving mother. She was a member of St. James A. M. E. Church and died in full triumph of faith. She was patient through her long illness and was heard to say: "I am waiting on the Lord. Please sing 'Rock of Ages'."

She leaves a mother, two sisters, two sons, one brother, two daughters-in-law, and a host of friends.

A precious one from us is gone, A voice we loved is stilled; A place is vacant in our home, Which never can be filled.

The Family.

Madam P. M. Dabney Establishes Office Here

Headquarters at 1403 Market St. to be Distributing Point For 20th Century Hair Preparation

Madam P. M. Dabney, of 1806 East 24th Street, Kansas City, has established a branch office in this city at 1403 Market St., St. Louis, Mo., for distributing supplies for her 20th Century Hair Preparation. She came to this city Sunday night with Miss May Smith, of Parsons, Kansas, and Mrs. Mattie P. Garner, of 1728 N. 10th St., Kansas City, Mo., who have had years of experience in this work.

In the western country no one has steered the success that Madam Dabney has and her good recommendation of all persons who have used them. Mrs. Dabney, with her co-workers, is stopping with Mrs. Crittenden Clark, at 5634 North Market St., and her permanent headquarters in this city will be at 1403 Market St.

Madam Dabney's 20th Century Hair Preparation needs no special introduction to this city as those who have come to as from the different cities in Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas, Iowa, Colorado, Nebraska, and all southern and western states will readily testify to the benefits derived from using this wonderful preparation.

Madam Dabney will be in the city for the next six weeks instructing her representatives in the work and will be pleased to get her many friends and patrons at her office, 1403 Market, between the hours of 8:30 a. m. and 5 o'clock p. m. daily.

Mrs. Alma A. Clark has been engaged as the superintendent of the branch office established in this city at 1403 Market St., at which place the 20th Century preparation can be secured at all times.

HOW IS YOUR BODY?
This spring, try Sen-e-a Tonic. Made from roots and herbs. The large $1.00 bottles for 25 cents (4 for $1) for a short time only, at 2023 Market St.

Dear Madam:
I have a friend by the name of Mrs. Sarah Miller, and have been personally friendly to her for over three years, and during the time she wore a wig. I have been treating her hair for about two months, and now she has taken the wig off, and uses her own hair except a small piece in the back. This treatment is wonderful, I must say. Another lady by the name of Mrs. Emma Tuck, when I first saw the lady I was afraid to touch her hair, I thought I would burn her scalp, her hair was so short, and if I had seen her before I began to treat her scalp you would not believe it was the same head; it was the worst one I have met with. I will mention some more next time.

Your agent,
Mrs. Muriel Hall,
Tampa, Fla.

Dear Madam:
Yes, Nineteen Fourteen, in the month of August, I was visiting my friend, Mrs. Emma B. Wiley, she and I were looking over the Voice of the People, a newspaper, and found Major's advertised hair grower, and we both decided to work for the Oxford College. I have tried everything for my hair and nothing did it any good, until I began using Major's Hair Oil, and I feel proud of my hair today, and feel more than able to speak for it anywhere, and any time. I can truly say it is the real thing and does the work.

And I will say to all ladies, let us work hard, and use W. L. Major's face creams, hair oils and powder, and look good.

Your agent,
Mrs. Annie Johnson,
New Decatur, Ala.

Sir:
Your Oxford Complexion Cream is among the best I have ever used. It shall always be on my dressing table, and you may be sure that my number of customers will be made more numerous by my advocating the use of it among my many friends and acquaintances.

Yours truly,
G. E. Bostwick,
Murphyboro, Ill.

Sir:
I have seven patrons who are taking the full course of treatments; they are perfectly satisfied with the treatments. Says your representation of different articles just as represented. I have a gentleman patient, who has ring-worms in face, I have been treating him two weeks and have taken all out of face excepting one. I feel that I am in a growing and prosperous business. Your chemicals are wonderful, and I am more anxious to go on and do everything for the future success of your business and my growth.

Yours very truly,
(Miss) Peoria Black,
Parsons, Kan.

Dear Sir:
I can say, truthfully, that I have seen a great many who have had treatments from others firms, but none to equal the Oxford treatments. Had I taken some other course of hair treatment as many of my friends wanted-me to, and afterward seen the work of your course, I would have been very jealous. Your treatment does just what it says it will do, and to be without it I would miss the very pride of womanhood. So many of my friends are wonderfully surprised friends that they have seen my work, and they mean to take the Oxford course of Hair Culture. One or two ladies that are having treatments from other agents have already said they were going to take the Oxford treatment of me and by some of the oils. It works like a charm.

I thank you for what you have done for me, and looking to do something for you in the future.

I am, yours truly,
Mrs. Annie Handy,
Quinton, Ark.

Madam:
My friends, and myself, think there is no other course like this one. We like it better and better. I can't help but smile whenever I open a box of Oxford Pressing Oil. My friends are always glad to hear of me making a new order; it is doing a wonderful work on some heads I deal with.

Your agent,
Miss Estella Young,
Ethelville, Ala.

I am compelled to say the Oxford hair preparations are among the best on the market, as they would certainly have heard from me in case your course of treating the scalp had not pleased or helped me. I think it no more than fair to let you know that the opposite is the case.

Now, when I say that I am pleased with all that came to me from you, I am speaking the sentiments of my friends, for those that have received treatments assist me greatly in advertising my work.

Now that I am out again I am determined to do all I can for the work.

Your truly,
Miss Mayme Smith,
Moss Point, Miss.

Game Called J. P. M.

Everything is in readiness for the grand opening of the Colored baseball season at Kuebler's Park Sunday. All the boxes, have been engaged, Manager Mills' sure team is on edge and thousands of fans are impatiently waiting for the call, "Play Ball!"

The game will start at 3 p. m. but will be preceded by a loud concert by the Great Western Band under the leadership of Prof. W. D. Flowers. Dr. Chas. Henry Phillips will pitch the first ball, and former umpire Robert L. Jones will umpire the first inning as a farewell to baseball. The fair sex will be largely represented as the sale of laces show. To a reporter this week, Manager Mills stated that the demand for laces had trebled the supply and no laces would be left later than midnight Saturday. If any who engaged laces fail to secure them by that time, they will be sold to other applicants. Several boxes have been taken by the American Hotel Waiters.

Manager Mills has lined up a strong team to oppose the Champlain Belleville Maroons. Three new faces will be seen on the diamond this year.

A. Cary, the young St. Louis boy, who made good, will play third base. Andrew Williams is a pitcher formerly with the Palm Beach "Breakers." Geo. Handy, late of the Brooklyn Royals, will cover second base. The general admission to the grandstand will be 35 cents. Boxes extra. Bleachers 25 cents. Kuebler's Park is at 6100 N. Broadway. It can be reached by the Broadway line, or by the Taylor Avenue, Bellefontaine and Sarah to entrance of O'Fallon Park, then by a short stroll through the park to the entrance of the ball grounds.

Monday Night, April 19, will be Wurtz Mart Night at the Keystone Cafe. Everyone is invited.

ATHLETICS AND AMUSEMENTS

By H. T. M.

BOOKER WASHINGTON

There is an abundance of good talent showing at the Booker Washington this week.

Turpin's Artists are setting a high standard which only the best acts can maintain and the result is a bill of rare entertainment. Mr. Turpin's company of stars are putting on "Sambo in New York" this week. Tim Moore is in the title role and as usual keeps the audience in a bit of laughter. The scene is laid in a cabaret. Sambo arrives on the Great White Way, with a roll of bills, and is escorted to the cabaret by the ever-present "bunch" men, in the person of W. Henri Bowman. Here he is made to believe all know him and he continues to give away his bills until all are in a row and he is thrown out. He returns later, holds up the crowd, gets his money back and robs the house. The several song numbers incidental to the piece are rendered by Mrs. Moore, Miss Burnette and Miss Eloise Johnson. Joseph Burrell, as the waiter does well. The act goes big.

Tim Moore has a repertoire of three good, tuneful song numbers which he renders excellently and scores a hit.

Honkey and Nicholas, a musical comedy team, put over some nice work with saxophones, cornet and violin. They mix a line of comedy that is very rich and takes well. This is one of, if not the best, instrumental teams on the road.

Ricks and Talbert, a sister team, elaborately costumed, score nicely in singing, dancing and talking. They make a decided hit in their illustrated song, "Oh, What a Night."

Tim Moore says he has challenged Jack King for a fight at the Future City Club in the near future.

Truly predicts the success or failure of new inventions, patents, pending pending claims, etc. Tells whether you will receive fair dealing with partners. If you desire to know what business you shall follow to be successful, or if you intend to make any change or to start a business, buy or sell property, or, in fact, take any important step, don't fail to consult W. L. Gladstone. His advice may be the means of saving you thousands of dollars and a great deal of trouble.

LOVE, COURTSHIP AND MARRIAGE. If affairs of the heart or emotions of love interest you, he gives the exact and truthful revelations of all love affairs, settles lovers' quarrels, enables you to win the esteem and affection of anyone you desire, causes speedy and happy marriages; tells if the one you love is true; also date of marriage; restores lost affection, peace and confidence to lovers and discordant families; gives you the full secret how to control, fascinate and charm the one you love; also how you meet, and how to make a person at a distance think of you. Love Attendant. Weak Mediums Deceived.

NOTES.—Those calling for pastimes, curios and trifling persons are only wasting time calling on Prof. Gladstone. Strangely fascinating are the words that come from the cultivated lips of this most interesting man whose journey of life has already taken him through all the renowned periods of Europe, India and Europe. It seems, indeed, as if his knowledge must come from that mysterious world of which we all would know, yet longing cannot come from that mysterious world. He looks for us away into the dim mysterious future—the great beyond—across the dark chasm which separates the human body from the fitting soul—and that which is to be told. The spectators are brought to the gather foes are made friends, lost property is recovered, the mind is brushed away from business ventures, the head is so guided that failures are averted, the earth's surface is explored, its treasure laid bare to his mysterious perspective mind, and while he gives names, dates, facts and figures, his victim sits dumfounded at the revelations he makes in him. He gives a man of the past, time.

GLADSTONE is not a clairvoyant from choice, but because fate has so decreed it. His ancestors have powerful mediums and have for ages handed down their wonderful power of gift from generation to generation. So he has received the rich inheritance together with the command knowledge and extensive experience of generations. He matter what your past experience has been, you will save time and avoid disappointment by at once consulting Gladstone.

NOTE.—Gladstone censes no letters. If you cannot call in person, do not write, as his time is fully occupied with his personal callers.
